BAROLO

ANKER

Single-coloured unpatterned broadloom or carpet tile with cut pile surface.

Colours are the interplay of wavelength, light and surface, which blend to form a homogeneous unity in the eye of the viewer. At the same time, however, much more emerges. Namely imagination, inspiration and creativity. Always different. Always new.

BAROLO is the byword for such variety in many attractive colours. Creating space for ideas and opening up new possibilities. The refined, curled velour made of intricately high-twisted yarn always guarantees an appearance that is both soft and classically elegant. And the slightly grainy texture lends every room a particularly homely atmosphere – whether you choose a plain, unpatterned carpet roll or carpet tiles.
